

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

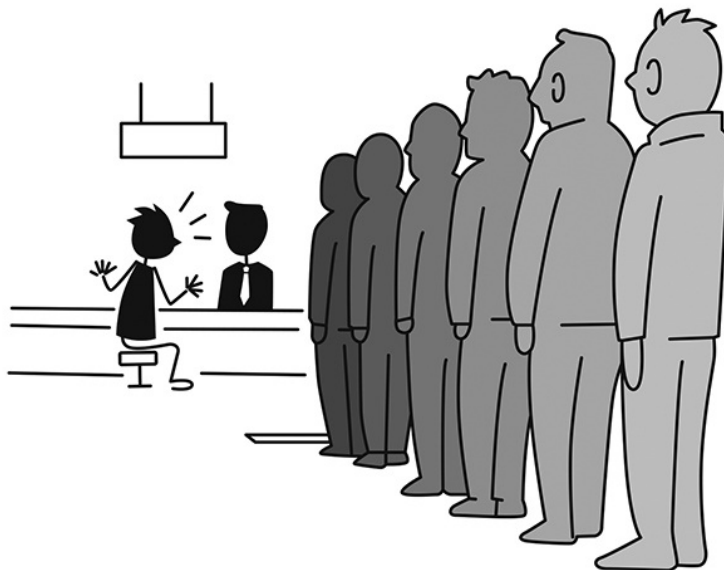

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Being polite makes travel even better!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about air travel.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can make a polite request.

Ask your partner:

- What are some differences between first class and economy class?
- What do you not like about traveling?

Let's Explore!

First class travel! What a luxury!

* "A luxury" is something expensive but extremely comfortable.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Flight Attendant: Welcome to first class. I'm Lynn, your flight attendant.

Vanessa: Here you are.

Flight Attendant: Come this way. Here is your seat. This is a travel kit with an eye mask and hand cream.

Vanessa: Oh, I like this nice, large seat.

Flight Attendant: You can recline it back to sleep.

Vanessa: Wow! Can I have a soda, please?

Flight Attendant: Certainly. All drinks and snacks are free.

Vanessa: Miss, would you bring me another soda and a snack, please?

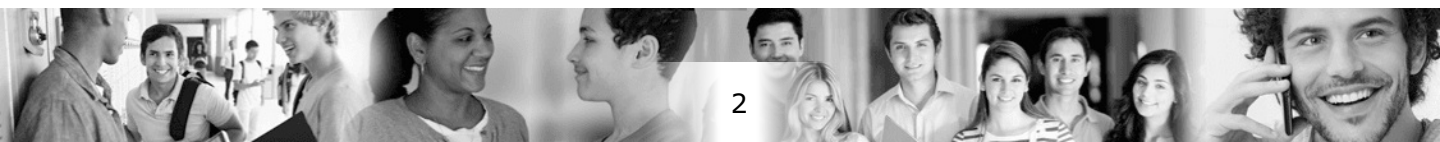

Flight Attendant: Of course! Meals are coming soon.

Flight Attendant: Fish or chicken?

Vanessa: I'd like to have the fish, please. Real plates and silverware! Can I have some coffee, please?

Flight Attendant: Here you go. Enjoy your meal!

Vanessa: I could really get used to traveling like this!

Let's Practice!

Practice making and responding to requests!

Instructions: Read the sentences aloud.

1. Can I have a soda, please?
2. Certainly. All drinks and snacks are free.
3. Can I have some coffee, please?
4. Of course!
5. I'd like to have the fish, please.
6. Here you go. Enjoy your meal!

Let's Practice!

Let's make requests!

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. Cane I get some tea?
2. Wool you bring me a snack, please?
3. Cold you help me recline the seat?
4. Can you bling me some silverware, please?
5. Can I half the fish dinner?

Extension Activity

Write a dialogue making requests on a plane.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Imagine you are traveling on a plane.
- Write a dialogue making a request for something.
- Write the flight attendant's response.
- Write 2 more requests and responses.
- Practice the dialogue aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about air travel.

☐ ☐

I make requests using words like can, could, would.

☐ ☐

I respond to requests on a plane.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- silverware (noun): knives, forks and spoons; cuttlery
e.g. In first class, they use real silverware, not plastic.
- eye mask (noun): a dark cloth to cover your eyes when sleeping e.g. There is an eye mask in here for you.
- hand cream (noun): a thick liquid to put on dry hands
e.g. I need some hand cream. My hands are very dry.
- to welcome (verb): to greet in a friendly way
e.g. Welcome to first class.
- to recline (verb): to push into a horizontal position
e.g. You can recline the seat when you sleep.
- snack (noun): a small amount of food
e.g. Have a snack while you wait for the meal.
- to get used to (verb): to become accustomed to e.g. I could get used to traveling first class.
- flight attendant (noun): an airline worker
e.g. The flight attendant helps passengers.
- travel kit (noun): a small set of things used for travel
e.g. This travel kit contains hand cream and an eye mask.

Learning Points

Modal Verbs for Polite Requests

You use the modal verbs can, could and would to make polite requests when you are on an airplane.

Modal Verb	Polite Request
can	Can I have some coffee, please?
could	Could you bring me some water?
would	Would you get me a snack, please?

Examples:

- Traveler: Can I have some coffee, please?
Flight Attendant: Of course.
- Traveler: Would you get me a snack, please?
Flight Attendant: Certainly.

