Writing a Product Review

A product review is a report that gives someone's opinion about the quality of a product. You can use the Simple Present tense when you write a product review.

To write a review, you must include:

Features: information on what the product does and details

Target Group: information on who uses the product and why they would want to use it

Pros and Cons: an opinion about the positives and negatives of the product

Overall Opinion: your opinion of the product

Example:

Do you like to cook?

(Target Group) Our cookware is perfect for the busy parent!

(Features) It has stainless steel handles, so you won't burn yourself!

(Pros/Cons) It's large enough to cook an entire roast, but can get quite heavy!

(Overall opinion) I would say this product is overall a smart choice.

Verbs With the Infinitive

Infinitives always start with to followed by the simple form of the verb, like this: To + Verb
= Infinitive

The infinitive is the basic form of the word.

Infinitives are not verbs. You cannot add s, es, ed, or ing to the end.

Examples:

- I don't want to spend too much.
- There are so many bags to choose from.
- You need to get a new suitcase.
