

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's wait in the airport lounge with Sally!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about air travel.
- I can apologize and respond to apologies.
- I can say what I want and would like to do.

Ask your partner:

- What happens when a flight is delayed?
- How long do people usually have to wait? What do you do when your flight is delayed?

Let's Explore!

Sally is waiting to board her flight but there's a delay! What's it about? Air traffic control?

* "Air traffic control" refers to the people who give instructions to pilots by radio.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Oh no, I'm so sorry. I didn't realize your drink was there. I'm terribly sorry!

Random Passenger: That's all right. Don't worry about it! No harm done.

PA: Attention all passengers on flight AMA702 to Paris. This is an important notification. We regret to inform you that there is a delay. This flight is delayed due to high air traffic. Please stay at the gate for further announcements. At this time, we would like to apologize to all passengers for any inconvenience caused. We are working with air traffic control to resolve this matter as soon as possible. We want to thank you kindly for your patience.

Sally: I want some coffee. What would you like?

Random Passenger: I'm all right. You go grab some.

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the announcement? Let's find out!

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Select all the sentences that talk about what the airline wants or would like to do.

This is an important notification. We would like to inform you that there is a delay. This flight is delayed due to high air traffic. We would like to apologize to all passengers for any inconvenience caused. We are working to resolve this matter as soon as possible. We want to thank you kindly for your patience.

Let's Practice!

I'm sorry! Do you know where this goes?

Instructions: Write the words in the correct category.

1. Oh no, I'm so sorry.
2. That's all right.
3. Don't worry about it!

1. We would like to apologize to all passengers for any inconvenience caused.
2. No harm done.
3. I'm terribly sorry!

Apology

Response to an Apology

Extension Activity

Let's make an announcement!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Imagine you are at the airport.
- There is a delay with a flight.
- Write an announcement (5-7 lines) to inform the passengers.
- Apologize for the delay.
- Practice reading your announcement aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write an announcement about a delay in my flight.

☐ ☐

I apologize for the delay.

☐ ☐

I practice reading my announcement aloud.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- delay (noun): when something does not happen when it should e.g. There is a delay. The plane will leave in two hours.
- notification (noun): information about something
e.g. This is an important notification.
- announcement (noun): an important statement
e.g. Please wait for further announcements from officials.
- to inform (verb): to officially tell someone about something e.g. We regret to inform you that there is delay.
- inconvenience (noun): problems caused by something which affects people e.g. We apologize for any inconvenience caused.
- as soon as possible (expression): in the least amount of time
e.g. We are working to fix this as soon as possible.
- patience (noun): the ability to continue waiting without becoming upset
e.g. We thank you for your patience.
- air traffic (noun): the movement of airplanes in the sky
e.g. We are experiencing a delay because of high air traffic.
- to resolve (verb): to find a way to solve a problem
e.g. We are working to resolve this issue.
- matter (noun): issue; situation to deal with e.g. We want to resolve this matter ASAP.

Learning Points

Apologizing and Responding to Apologies

When you feel badly about something you do, you apologize and say you are sorry. You can use the Simple Present tense. You can also add an explanation. Some expressions of apology are:

- I'm (so/very/terribly) sorry!
- I apologize ...
- We would like to apologize ...

To respond to an apology, you can use these expressions:

- No problem!
- No worries!
- That's all right.
- Don't worry about it.
- No harm done.

Expressing what You Want and Would Like to Do

When expressing something you want you begin the sentence with I want, or I would like. Both are used when expressing a want, but we consider I want to be informal, and I would like to be more formal.

I want ..	say sorry for what happened to get some coffee.
I would like ..	to apologize for the delay. to walk around the airport.

