Let's Start!

Let's go shopping at the airport!

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about air travel.
- I can ask for things in a store.
- I can say what I want and would like to do.

Ask your partner:

- Do you buy things when you are in the airport? What do you buy?
- What things do you buy when you are on holiday?

Let's Explore!

Sally's at the airport and she needs to go shopping! Where does she go?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Clerk: Hello ma'am. Is there anything in particular you're looking for?

Sally: I'm looking for carry-on bags.

Clerk: Rollers? Duffle bags?

Sally: Do you have any rollers?

Clerk: Right over here. We have a sale. Which one would you like?

Sally: I ripped mine. I just want to buy a new one. I don't want too many compartments.

Clerk: Alright. This one's on sale for $40. It has swivel wheels, a few compartments and comes in a variety of colors. Which color would you like?

Sally: I would like the red, please.

Clerk: There you go. Have a great trip.

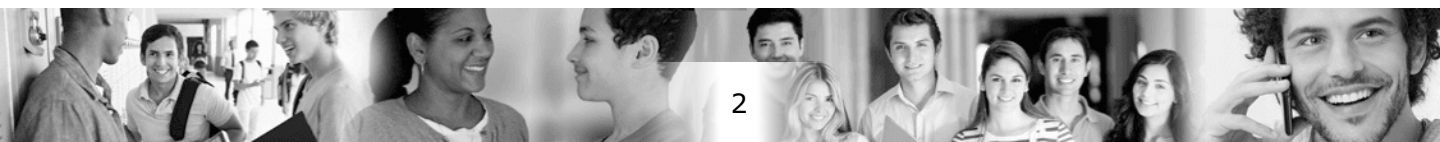

Sally: Thanks. Could you tell me where I pay?

Clerk: Behind the suitcases.

Cashier: Is this all, ma'am?

Sally: Yes. Can I pay with this card?

Cashier: Of course. Just enter your PIN when prompted.

Let's Practice!

What did Sally buy at the luggage shop? Do you remember?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Underline all the sentences in the paragraph that are false.

Sally is looking for a new suitcase. She wants to buy a new roller. She wants a duffel bag with many compartments. The clerk shows her one with swivel wheels. The cashier is behind the suitcases.

Let's Practice!

Time to practice speaking! Let's ask for things in the luggage shop.

Instructions: Organize the sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. carry-ons? / I / find / Where / the / can

2. for / looking / carry-on / bags. / I'm / the

3. you / Do / rollers? / any / have

4. where/ I / tell / pay? / you / me / Could

Learning Points

Shopping in the Airport

You can visit different shops in the airport like:

- gift shops
- clothing stores
- duty-free shops (These shops sell items you can bring into a country without paying taxes.)

When you are in a shop, you can use these expressions to ask where things are:

- I'm looking for ...
- Do you have any ... ?
- Where are the ... ?
- Could you tell me where the ... is?
- How much ... ?

Asking For Things in a Shop

Here are some useful questions you can use in a store. Note that some of these questions use the modals can and could to express polite requests, while other use Simple Present tense in interrogative form.

Examples:

- Can I pay with this card?
- Could you tell me where I pay?
- Do you have any rollers?
