Let's Start!

Sally is at the airport. What airline is she taking?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about air travel.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can identify and manage misunderstandings.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you travel by air?
- Do you like flying? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

Sally wants to board her flight. Where is the airline counter? Let's find out!

* To "board" means to get on a plane, train or bus.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hi, I'd like to check in, please.

Ticket Agent: Place your luggage on the scale, please. Can I have your name?

Sally: Ufff! Yes, it's Sally Davis. My carry-on is here.

Ticket Agent: Your bags are a little heavy. There might be an overweight charge for them.

Sally: Here's my ticket.

Ticket Agent: Oh, it's first class. Your luggage is fine. Sorry Miss, but you aren't on the passenger list.

Sally: Are you sure? I confirmed yesterday. Can you check again, please?

Ticket Agent: Miss, this ticket is for American Airways. This counter is for America Flies.

Sally: It is? OMG! Where is that airline, Miss?! Can someone help me?

Ticket Agent: Porter! Can you help, please?

Sally: Thank you. I hope I don't miss my plane!

Let's Practice!

Let's check in!

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. What might you hear when you travel by air?
 - a. Hi, I'd like to check in, please.
 - b. Place your luggage on the scale, please.
 - c. Please don't put your arm out the window.
 - d. My carry-on is here.
 - e. Next stop, Grand Central Station.
 - f. There might be an overweight charge.
 - g. Oh, it's first class.

Let's Practice!

Can you help me?

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write each word in the correct order.

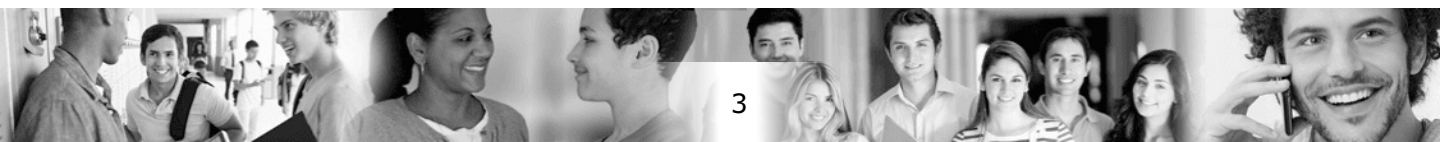

1. have / I / Can / name / ? / your

2. . / Sally / it's / Yes, / Harris

3. ? / Can / someone / help / me

4. ? / help / please / Harris, / you / Miss / Can

5. Thank / me / helping / you / . / for

Extension Activity

How is first-class plane travel different from economy class?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of ways first-class plane travel is different from economy.
- Ask your partner to do the same.
- Look at the chart. Fill in each area.
- Tell a partner your ideas.
- Listen to your partner's ideas.

Learning Points

Identifying and Managing Misunderstandings

When you don't understand what someone says, be polite when you ask them to repeat. You can use the Simple Present tense.

Example: Can you help me?

When you correct a misunderstanding, stress the words you need the person to hear.

Identifying a Misunderstanding	Managing a Misunderstanding
Sorry Miss, I'm sorry, but ... This ticket is for ____ not ____.	Are you sure? Can you check again, please? Can someone help me?

Examples:

• Ticket Agent: I'm sorry, but your name is not on the passenger list.

Traveler: Can you check again, please?

Traveling by Air

When you travel by airplane there are many words to listen for. The ticket agent takes your luggage at the check-in counter. Heavy bags often have an overweight charge.

A carry-on is 23 cm by 40 cm by 55 cm. Larger carry-ons have to be weighed and checked.

First class customers can have more luggage. They wait in a special lounge with free tea, coffee and snacks.

Examples:

• Ticket Agent: Please put your luggage on the scale.

Traveler: Here they are.

Ticket Agent: Your bags are heavy. There is a $100 overweight charge.

Traveler : $100!?

Ticket Agent: Your carry-on is large as well. You need to check it too. That's $150 in total.

Traveler: Oh my gosh!
